

This Photo Booth Business Is Absolutely Killing It Online And Paying NOTHING for Their Traffic

Hi, I'm John and before helping Dentists with their online reputation I was a computer support tech for about 7 years.

As you probably know the money is not the greatest in the computer tech business especially when you have a family to support and bills to pay...

Today I own ReputationMDs and we just opened an office that is fully dedicated to helping dentists improve their online reputation and increase their revenue through reputation marketing.

Recently I was researching a dentist for my own needs and realized that there were quite a few dentists who have either no reviews online, or terrible reviews online. That's CRAZY! Especially since I can help build a 5-STAR Reputation and bring in more customers.

A good example of this is the work I did for StarPhotoz, a photobooth rental business. When they first started working with they didn't have any reviews online, and basically did not have any online reputation at all. Their website was pretty much just sitting in cyber space collecting cyber dust even though it was well designed.

StarPhotoz spent quite a bit of money on their site and some advertising and it was bringing them in no revenue. That's a problem...and a pretty big one.

Now StarPhotoz is the busiest photo booth business in their city and their revenue is going through the roof! They have to turn down business!

Long story short, they hired me and 2 months later here's what happened...

This was by far the coolest addition to any party that I have ever had. Had such a great time taking pictures with my family and friends. The kids Absolutely loved it :) Great variety of props. The booth alternated colors as the night got darker, very cool!!!!

I highly recommend and will use at all of our parties.

This was such a fun idea! Star photoz was a hit at the birthday party yesterday! Everyone had so much fun taking pictures and using all the fun props they had. They were on time and very friendly. Christina even helped with switching out the props while we were in the booth taking photos! Very cool! Lots of room in the booth and the picture quality turned out so good! Definitely going to book again! Great way to capture fun memories with friends and family!!!
